Proposed Nicholas Drive School

Nicholas Drive Area Needs School

There's an empty spot in Circle- ville — school-wise. It is in the Nicholas Drive area.

The $1,475,500 school bond is- sue, on the May 3 ballot, will provide a 13-15 room school in that area.

Already there are 100 children in the area along Nicholas Drive and near the Fairgrounds who are without a neighborhood school. They are being transported throughout the city.

Some families have children in three different schools.

This probably is the fastest- growing neighborhood in the city. The New Ridgewood Subdivision and proposed Garden City area are growing, putting more of a burden on the school system, with no place to house the children.

NOW ATWATER, High Street and Franklin Street schools are loaded, with no room for more children. The question is, "Where are we to put the children who live in this new growing area?" Obviously the answer is provided by the school bond issue.

The proposed Nicholas Drive School will be located on the east side of Nicholas Drive, north of the Ridgewood Subdivision. The site lies in the area designated by the Master Plan for Circleville, for school expansion.

The building would have 13-15 rooms, including a multi-purpose room, hand work room and cafe- teria. It will give pupils from the area equal educational opportu- nity. They will be able to walk to school.

If the bond issue fails May 3, these children probably will be forced to go to school in rented rooms wherever they are avail- able. There is no more room at the other schools. Transportation costs would increase. The job of administering widely scattered rented classrooms would be dif- ficult, if not impossible.

Addition of the new school build- ing in the Nicholas Drive area will be adequate until 1967-70. At that time, if the growth of the city con- tinues at its present rate, there will be need for even more school rooms.

Any additional industrial devel- opment will make increasing de- mands on the school system. If the needs of our children are not met now, they will be doubly difficult to meet in the future.

The proposed Nicholas Drive elementary school, with classes in kindergarten through the 8th grade, certainly will eliminate the "hole" in the present neighborhood education program.

Negro Sit-Down Strategy Told

Leaders Say Courts To Uphold Legality

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A Negro integration leader says dramatizing the position of the Negro in the South and predicts they will be upheld legally.

The expression of confidence came from the Rev. Martin Luther King Jr. at the start of the 11th week of the Negro campaign against segregated lunch counters.

The 31-year-old Atlanta Baptist pastor appeared on the NBC tele- vision program Meet the Press in Washington Sunday night shortly after a Negro college student con- ference at Raleigh, N.C., laid the groundwork for formation of a Southwide organization.

King conceded the sit-ins might violate local laws. But he said, "in breaking local laws we are really seeking to dignify the law" as set forth in the 1954 U.S. Su- preme Court decision on public school segregation.

The man who led the successful bus boycott in Montgomery, Ala., in 1956, reasoned that if and when local laws against sit-ins reach the Supreme Court they will be held to be in violation of the basic guarantees of the Constitution.

King said he felt both the Con- gress and the President could and should do more to hasten integra- tion.

This statement was echoed in the findings and recommendations of the Easter weekend Raleigh conference attended by 142 stu- dents from 11 Southern states and the District of Columbia.

The student steering committee said in a statement there was a possibility President Eisenhower might go to Africa this fall. The committee said: "We feel that be- fore going to Africa, the President should lend the prestige of his of- fice to the solution of the racial problems in this country and thus he shall be even better prepared for his visit to Africa."

Weed-Burning Chore Sets 7 Homes Ablaze

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Ches- ter Larson burned some weeds in his backyard barbecue pit Sunday and, in about the time it takes to broil a steak, seven homes were ablaze.

Asst. Fire Chief J. E. Byrne estimated the neighborhood dam- age at more than $60,000.

Kennedy Stumps W. Virginia; Other Candidates Cheerful

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass) had West Virginia campaigning all to himself today as attention focused on the religious and "gang up" issues.

Reports indicated that his rival, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), was making headway in the campaign for the state's presi- dential primary May 10.

Another Democratic presidential candidate, Sen. Lyndon B. John- son of Texas, received encourag- ing reports. Despite signs of a fail- ing-out over the civil rights bill recently, many of the South's delegates apparently have decided to stick with him at the Democratic National Convention in July.

On the Republican side, asso- ciates of Vice President Richard M. Nixon said he had made a realistic appraisal of Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's chances for the Republican convention.

But, barring some unforeseen de- velopment, Nixon remains confi- dent that Rockefeller cannot de- feat him. The vice president has the backing of President Eisen- hower.

In the West Virginia primary, Sen. Mike Mansfield (D-Mont)

urged other Democratic candi- dates not to gang up on Kennedy. Mansfield is considered a sup- porter of Johnson, who has not entered any primaries.

Another Johnson supporter, Sen. Robert C. Byrd (D-W.Va.), re- cently suggested that followers of Johnson and Sen. Stuart Sym- ington (D-Mo.) vote for Humphrey in an attempt to stop Kennedy.

But, in a Washington interview today, Mansfield said "I do not favor the idea of all the other Democratic candidates gang- ing up on Kennedy. This kind of procedure is highly reprehensible and very unfair."

On the eve of Kennedy's three- day tour of West Virginia, Hum- phrey and his supporters accused the Kennedy forces of crying "big- otry" in an effort to play down the election and create sympathy for the Massachusetts senator.

Kennedy is a Roman Catholic campaigning in a state where only 4.9 per cent of the population is listed as Catholic.

"It appears obvious," Hum- phrey said in a statement Sunday, "that there is a carefully designed plan of high-priced and clever public relations and propaganda experts to downgrade the im- portance of this primary, to en- gender sympathy for my oppo- nent, and to undermine credit for the victory we intend to achieve."

In a statement Saturday, the two co-chairman of the Hum- phrey-for-President committee in the state, Marshall West and Wil- liam Jacobs, said Kennedy "seems to think everybody who doesn't want him to be president is a bigot."

But Matt Reese, executive di- rector of the West Virginians for Kennedy, countered: "The most ridiculous statement I ever heard."

"Were it not for Sen. Kennedy's confidence that the people of West Virginia would choose on the basis of the candidate's public service record and not his religion," Reese said, "he could hardly have dared to enter national politics."

Humphrey will not return to West Virginia until next Monday, but he plans to keep campaigning there, almost without a break, un- til primary day.

A store clerk, Jean McPhee, found the boy, Russell MacKenzie as she was walking to work.

A doctor examined the baby and said he was a little cold but other- wise in good condition. The lower half of his sleeping suit had been removed and he was wearing only a T-shirt.

Bowling Lanes, Inc. Purchases Alley Site

Bowling Lanes, Inc. Saturday purchased little over a third of acre of land north of here from Chester A. and Irene D. Blue, 1198 Atwater Ave.

The site, located north of Circle- ville Motors, Inc., Route 3, is to be used for a bowling operation.

More than half of the acreage was purchased by Bowling Lanes, Inc. for $12,000 and the other portion was purchased by Bowling Lanes president, J. Kenneth De- Long, Chillicothe, for $7,500 for total cost of $19,500.

Man Thrown From Tractor

E. L. Daniels, 52 Is Seriously Hurt

E. L. Daniels, 52, Route 1, Orient, was seriously injured when thrown from his tractor at the W. T. Clif- ton property in Darby Twp. yester- day.

Sheriff Charles H. Radcliff said Daniels was taken to White Cross Hospital, Columbus. He was report- ed in "serious" condition.

Sheriff Radcliff said Daniels had just finished plowing a gar- den area for Clifton and had parked his tractor on the crest of a hill. He said the tractor started rolling down hill and that Daniels jumped on the vehicle in an ef- fort to stop it.

The sheriff said the tractor crashed down the embankment about 75 feet, tearing down two trees and upsetting.

He said Daniels was thrown against a tree.

According to Sheriff Radcliff, Daniels' family was visiting in Ashland, Ky. at the time of the accident.

Castro Seeks Talks with U.S. Chieftain

HAVANA (AP)—A suggestion by Fidel Castro that he hold private talks with President Eisen- hower or Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, was seen here today a possible indication the Cuban leader wants to improve relations with the United States.

Castro told correspondent Rich- ard Bate of the Columbia Broad- casting System Sunday that such a meeting could result in better relations between the two coun- tries.

Such a meeting also would mean a considerable boost in prestige for Castro, and it seemed most unlikely Eisenhower would give the idea serious consideration after Castro's numerous bitter at- tacks on U.S. policy. Nor did it seem likely Herter would see the Cuban leader after all the harsh things Castro has said about the Secretary of State.

In Washington, State Depart- ment press officer Lincoln White brushed off Castro's suggestion. He said it was surprising to him that the suggestion was made to a newsman and not to U.S. Am- bassador Philip Bonsal, whom Castro has not seen since Bonsal returned to Cuba March 20.

Castro, who has been leading a hunt for rebel guerrillas in the Sierra Maestra for the past 10 days, made the remark when he appeared at the mountain town of El Caney to help dedicate a new school.

Numerous Leads Being Checked

Circleville Police today continued investigation and search for a man who attacked a local woman on E. Mound St. Friday night.

Chief Robert Temple said he and his staff currently are check- ing out many leads concerning the molester. The woman attack- ed Friday night was not harmed.

Chief Temple said his depart- ment has received numerous clues which could be connecte with the attack. He said his men have been instructed to check them out.

Temple said it has not been de- termined whether or not the Fri- day incident involves an alleged molester who accosted a young girl at High St. School Wednesday.

ACCORDING to Temple, another young school girl was approached by an unidentified man here last week while she was walking down the street.

The woman attacked Friday was walking home from work at about 9 p. m. Officers said she was grab- bed from behind by the unknown assailant, preventing her from get- ting a description of the man.

Chief Temple again today cau- tioned women and girls to be dou- bly alert while walking on the streets or when home alone at nights.

Temple said similar attacks on women and approaches to young girls have been reported in Fair- field County. As in the case here, he said no description of the mo- lester has been obtained in the neighboring county.

Mass of Cold Chills Spring

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mass of cold air pushed out of the Midwest into the eastern third of the nation today after an Easter weekend of violent storms and surprise snows.

Generally fair and warm weath- er was on tap for the storm-struck Midwest westward to the Pacific Coast. Showers, thundershowers and possible snow flurries were expected in the Northwest and some thunderstorm activity in New England.

The cold mass plummeted tem- peratures below freezing from Minnesota eastward into Michigan this morning and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., counted four inches of fresh snow.

Green Bay, Wis., reported 19 above; Grantsburg, Wis., regis- tered 18, and Mason City, Iowa 27. The freezing zone extended southward into central Illinois and Indiana.

Cold, wet weather after a night of tornadoes, chilling rains and snows spoiled Easter observances in the Midwest. Property damage was extensive. The two-day death toll stood at nine.

Snowstorms hit Wyoming, Ne- braska, the Dakota, Iowa, Wiscon- sin, northern Illinois and the east- ern side of Lake Michigan.

Ames, Iowa, had two inches on the ground Easter morning. Scottsbluff and North Platte, in southwest Nebraska, and Pellston and Traverse St. Mich., all re- ported an inch of snow.

Showdown Due After Quiet Easter Monday

'Young Gangsters' Are Accused by Government Men

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Police and troops, backed by eight armored cars, arrested 400 Negroes in a raid on the Af- rican township of Duncan outside East London today.

The big sweep came as strong police patrols maintained an un- easy quiet in other major South African cities on the first day of a week-long work boycott called by Negro leaders opposing South Africa's white supremacy laws. This was a Monday Easter holi- day for most workers, however, and the real showdown comes Tuesday.

Police and troops threw a cor- don around the East London set- tlement, then moved in.

The East London district police commandant, Maj. P. M. Land- man, said the arrested Negroes were "all part of a tsoetsi (young gangsters) element in this native settlement." These elements have been accused of beating and in- timidating Negroes who want to work.

Landman claimed there were no violent incidents.

Police reported all quiet in Jo- hannesburg and African town- ships surrounding this metropolis up to noon. Most stores were closed and the sunny streets were largely deserted.

Negroes employed in hotels and apartment houses appeared to be on the job, but many of these live in the buildings where they work or nearby. Their working was no indication of the sentiment of Africans in native townships.

In the first violence of the week, a group of Negroes attacked and seriously injured a Negro police sergeant on his way to work in Port Elizabeth. An attempt was made on another Negro police- man shortly after, but he resisted and escaped unharmd. Police ar- rested six Negro suspects.

Slayer of Couple Is Hunted In New Philadelphia Hills

NEW PHILADELPHIA, Ohio (AP)—A manhunt touched off Saturday night by the slaying of a farmer and his wife continued without letup today in hill country southwest of here.

Scores of weary law officers searched farm buildings, abandoned mines and wooded country for a man they want to question in the slaying of William W. Fender, 59, and his wife, Bernice, 51.

The man they seek wrecked Fender's car in a high-speed chase started after Ohio Highway Patrolmen became suspicious of the actions of the driver of the car.

After tracing the ownership of the wrecked car, patrolmen came upon the bodies of Fender and his wife in their farm home near Doylestown in Wayne County, Ohio, 30 miles northwest of here.

Wayne County authorities said there may be a link between the slayings and the wounding of a woman at Rittman, near Doylestown, Friday night. Mrs. Lewis Wagner, 25, was wounded in the shoulder and stomach. She was reported in fair condition in Wadsworth Hospital in Medina County.

Sought for questioning in that shooting was Kenneth Watts, 21, of Wayne County, W. Va., who had known Mrs. Wagner for some time, according to Sheriff Glen Rike. Watts had lived at Rittman since last fall.

Mrs. Wagner's car was found abandoned in a swamp a few miles west of Fender's livestock farm.

Patrolman William McMahon said the man who killed the Fenders apparently wanted nothing but the keys to Fender's car. Fender's pockets had been pulled inside out, but everything in the house appeared undisturbed, the officer said.

The man who wrecked Fender's car fled on foot and the patrol said he was believed still on foot somewhere in the vicinity of Newcomerstown, southwest of here.

More than 50 patrolmen, Tuscarawas County sheriff's deputies and volunteers joined the manhunt. The patrol said many of them kept at it 13 and 14 hours at a stretch before being relieved.

The patrol used an airplane Sunday and a score of unmarked cars.

A small caliber weapon was used in both shootings. Wayne County authorities reported. Ballistic tests were to be made in an effort to see if it was the same weapon. The revolver or rifle used was not found.

Fender had been shot in the forehead and once in the abdomen. He was dead when Patrolman McMahon and Doylestown Marshal Leo Fredericks reached the house. Mrs. Fender, shot in the forehead, died on the way to a hospital.

Police Press Attack Probe

Numerous Leads Being Checked

Circleville Police today continued investigation and search for a man who attacked a local woman on E. Mound St. Friday night.

Chief Robert Temple said he and his staff currently are checking out many leads concerning the molester. The woman attacked Friday night was not harmed.

Chief Temple said his department has received numerous clues which could be connected with the attack. He said his men have been instructed to check them out.

Temple said it has not been determined whether or not the Friday incident involves an alleged molester who accosted a young girl at High St. School Wednesday.

According to Temple, another young school girl was approached by an unidentified man here last week while she was walking down the street.

The woman attacked Friday was walking home from work at about 9 p. m. Officers said she was grabbed from behind by the unknown assailant, preventing her from getting a description of the man.

Chief Temple again today cautioned women and girls to be doubly alert while walking on the streets or when home alone at night.

Temple said similar attacks on women and approaches to young girls have been reported in Fairfield County. As in the case here, he said no description of the molester has been obtained in the neighboring county.

Mass of Cold Chills Spring

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mass of cold air pushed out of the Midwest into the eastern third of the nation today after an Easter weekend of violent storms and surprise snows.

Generally fair and warm weather was on tap for the storm-struck Midwest westward to the Pacific Coast. Showers, thundershowers and possible snow flurries were expected in the Northwest and some thunderstorm activity in New England.

The cold mass plummeted temperatures below freezing from Minnesota eastward into Michigan this morning and Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., counted four inches of fresh snow.

Green Bay, Wis., reported 19 above; Grantsburg, Wis., registered 18, and Mason City, Iowa 27. The freezing zone extended southward into central Illinois and Indiana.

Cold, wet weather after a night of tornadoes, chilling rains and snows spoiled Easter observances in the Midwest. Property damage was extensive. The two-day death toll stood at nine.

Snowstorms hit Wyoming, Nebraska, the Dakota, Iowa, Wisconsin, northern Illinois and the eastern side of Lake Michigan.

Ames, Iowa, had two inches on the ground Easter morning. Scottsbluff and North Platte, in southwest Nebraska, and Pellston and Traverse City, Mich., all reported an inch of snow.

Showdown Due After Quiet Easter Monday

'Young Gangsters' Are Accused by Government Men

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (AP)—Police and troops, backed by eight armored cars, arrested 400 Negroes in a raid on the African township of Duncan outside East London today.

The big sweep came as strong police patrols maintained an uneasy quiet in other major South African cities on the first day of a week-long work boycott called by Negro leaders opposing South Africa's white supremacy laws. This was a Monday Easter holiday for most workers, however, and the real showdown comes Tuesday.

Police and troops threw a cordon around the East London settlement, then moved in.

The East London district police commandant, Maj. P. M. Landman, said the arrested Negroes were "all part of a total (young gangsters) element in this native settlement." These elements have been accused of beating and intimidating Negroes who want to work.

Landman claimed there were no violent incidents.

Police reported all quiet in Johannesburg and African townships surrounding this metropolis up to noon. Most stores were closed and the sunny streets were largely deserted.

Negroes employed in hotels and apartment houses appeared to be on the job, but many of these live in the buildings where they work or nearby. Their working was no indication of the sentiment of Africans in native townships.

In the first violence of the week, a group of Negroes attacked and seriously injured a Negro police sergeant on his way to work in Port Elizabeth. An attempt was made on another Negro policeman shortly after, but he resisted and escaped unharmmed. Police arrested six Negro suspects.

The government mobilized all police forces throughout the nation.

Daytonian Files Two Damage Suits

Robert P. Logan, Dayton, Friday filed two $10,000 damage suits against two Florida men in the Pickaway County Common Pleas Court.

John P. Swin, Miami, Fla., and William Morris Gordon, St. Augustine, Fla., were named as defendants. Logan's attorney is Melvin R. Adrian, Springfield.

Logan's petition stated that on Aug. 19, 1959 he was traveling west on U. S. Route 22 when he was involved in an accident at 1:45 p.m. 12 1/2 miles west of here.

He said he was following George Howard Betts when Betts approached the intersection of Locust Grove Road. He said Betts stopped in the middle of the road prior to making a left-hand turn forcing the plaintiff to stop.

GORDON, in Swin's employ and driving his car, collided with plaintiff from the rear, causing injuries to Logan. He listed $150 in medical bills and a loss of $400 from loss of work.

Logan charged Gordon for negligence in operating a motor at a greater than reasonable speed in excess of 60 miles per hour and being unable to stop within assured clear distance ahead.

Walnut School Visitation Days Will Start Tomorrow

Teachers and students at Walnut Twp. School are anticipating an interesting three days to-morrow Wednesday and Thursday when the parents are coming to see the school in action.

They are interested in having parents come prepared to stay throughout the day so that they will have opportunity to visit all departments of the school.

A trip to our home economics department will surely convince parents that training of these girls is being well carried out, teachers stated today.

Its shop classes are a must. Some of the fine work that is being done there has been on display at other times, but parents will have the opportunity to see the boys with tools.

PARENTS ALSO may find out if their children are doing things that you would have liked to have done when you were in school. They may see how rough lumber may be turned into a piece of art.

In the social science department parents will see students interested in the every day affairs of the nation. They probably know more about the nominees for President and Vice - president than most parents.

The students can tell parents how the conventions are operated. They might even predict closely who will be nominated next August at the Republican and Democratic conventions.

Visit Walnut's science department and perhaps parents will decide that a good school is a boy or girl on one end of a log and a good teacher on the other end. In spite of poor equipment and poor physical environment, the science classes are ranking high in their work.

Walnut officials ask, "Did you ever stop to think how it came about, when you see or hear a good band, a good chorus or the various other types of musical presentations?"

Well, it does not just happen, it takes hours and hours of patient training and work. See this department in action next week.

EVERY ROOM in the elementary school is an interesting place. Some are quiet, some are noisy. It depends upon what is taking place. The buzz of learning may seem too loud at times. Parents may want to question the procedure.

"Feel free to ask the teacher questions concerning her work. She will be glad to explain," officials said today.

"We know parents will like to come to school and go through the regular class schedule which their children follow. This is a wonderful opportunity for parents to learn intimately just what their children so in school. Having parents visit our school is fun — especially for first grade boys and girls," officials said.

"To watch children in action tells parents more than all the books that have ever been written.

The happiness and well being of your child is a goal of the teacher and school authorities," they said.

All the third graders are anxious to have their parents come and visit them. Some said their mothers didn't drive, but they were told that rides would be provided.

SOME SAID they had younger children at home, and the nursery was explained. They were all happy to hear about the free lunch for their parents.

The only thing that seemed to worry them was how to camouflage the conduct chart. They decided to put a sign welcome parents over it.

Pickaway County Savings Bonds Total $55,006

Ohio sales of Series E and H Savings Bonds in February were just under $27 million for a 5 per cent gain over February, 1959.

February sales in Pickaway County totalled $55,006 as compared to sales of $59,838 for February a year ago.

County Chairman Judge William D. Radcliff pointed out that the increase in sales is a reflection of the new, improved rates on Series E Bonds. "Now that the popular Series E, Bond pays 3 1/2 per cent in seven years and nine months the people of Ohio have stepped up the tempo of their bond purchases.

"For the first time in months we find four industrial counties; Mahoning, Montgomery, Franklin, and Lucas, ahead of their expected sales quota," Judge Radcliff said.

Sales through the popular Payroll Savings plan are on the increase and are expected to climb even higher due to a state-wide campaign now being conducted in many business concerns.

Twenty-nine counties surpassed their monthly sales quota and were led by Adams, Perry, Vinton and Pike.

tion for the first test of strength with the country's leading Negro political organization since it went underground.

Strong police patrols kept a watch on Negro settlements around major urban areas.

Hundreds of thousands of Negroes who work in the big cities and environs were caught in the political squeeze. The government warned anyone staying away from work faced loss of their jobs or even banishment to native reserves in the remote interior.

A failure of the work boycott would be interpreted as a setback for the ANC in its campaign to force an easing in the government's strict segregation policies and gain freedom for jailed Negro leaders.

Police offered protection to Negroes going to work and threatened sharp action against anyone trying to get them to stay home—either by persuasion or intimidation.

Most of the known ANC leaders have been jailed, but the thousands of strike pamphlets that flooded Johannesburg and other areas indicated effective underground machinery has been set up.

The Johannesburg Golden City Post, a Sunday paper for Negroes, said a large number of Africans had been arrested for distributing the stay-at-home leaflets.

There were other press reports that the government may seal South Africa's frontiers with three British protectorates—Swaziland, Basutoland and Bechuanaland—to prevent suspected government opponents from fleeing to asylum.

Canadian Banks Crack Down on American Coins

U.S. Hard Money Gets Evaluation Trim in New Financial Move

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Another bargain day is drawing to a close. Americans — and Canadians as well — have been making a few pretty pennies in Canada out of American silver coins. They could buy more with them than with Yankee folding money changed into Canadian currency.

Now the banks north of the border are clamping down with a penalty that hurts—in the pocket-book.

Canada hopes this won't worry American tourists. Few of them carry a load of silver coins anyway. Most change their dollars or traveler checks into Canadian money at the banks, or hotels, or maybe stores.

The only thing for American tourists to worry about henceforth: Be sure when you get change that it's Canadian silver, not American. That thin American dime will look even thinner after the banks trim it down through a 6 per cent discount.

Until a few days ago, the Yankee coin bought anything a Canadian one would almost anywhere in Canada. And four American quarters bought as much as a Canadian dollar. But you had to have about $1.04 in American money to get a Canadian dollar at the bank. And some time back you had to have as much as $1.06 American.

The 4 to 6 per cent difference in purchasing value—when multiplied by enough transactions—looked good to a lot of sharpshooters. And they have been flooding Canada with American silver in recent months.

In some Canadian bank branches here it's believed that 40 per cent of the coins circulating in Montreal today are American. The Canadian coins have been hoarded as more officially valuable, or taken to the banks and changed into American dollars. (It takes only 96 Canadian cents to buy one.)

Then, if the American dollars can be changed across the line in the United States into American coins and returned to Canada—the profit starts all over again. Canadian bankers here say this has become a racket—not to mention a nuisance. It takes time, trouble and expense to wrap up American coins that do reach the banks and ship them back to the United States. So the banks are charging a 6 per cent discount on them—a full 2 cents over the premium the Canadian dollar commands today.

This is inspiring some Canadian merchants, hotels and so on to put their own, and even higher, discount on American coins offered them. In Windsor, Ont., across the line from Detroit, some stores are reported discounting American coins by as much as 8 per cent. That is, if you offer them an American quarter, they ask for two more U.S. cents before handing over the goods.

Most affected will be the Americans—and Canadians, too, since they've been in on the so-called racket—who live near the border and cross over frequently to buy on whichever side the best prices seem to be offered.

Tourists are less likely to notice (carrying little silver to start with) unless they let themselves get loaded up with American change after reaching Canada. The American's pain comes at

Nation's Business Picture Grows Bright over Easter

NEW YORK (AP) — A record Easter shopping season, a continuing increase in automobile sales and a gain in home building have combined to brighten the nation's business picture.

On the darker side were higher unemployment and the steady decline of steel production.

After being discouraged by bad weather during the late winter and early spring, shoppers poured

Court Tests Await Idle Pay Program

LORAIN, Ohio (AP)—Two test cases are expected to settle the problem of what unemployment pay should be received by thousands of persons who were on the rolls when unemployment compensation rates were raised last fall. The situation was disclosed by Donald B. Leach, administrator of the Bureau of Unemployment Compensation, in a visit to the bureau's local office.

Under a new law which became effective last Oct. 16 the maximum unemployment pay was raised from $33 to $42 a month. The BUC received approximately 100,000 claims for payment of the higher rate, from persons already on the rolls.

But Leach said about 25,000 of the claimants did not move up to the higher rate because their employers, numbering about 2,000, filed protests. The employers contended the Legislature did not have the power to raise the rate for persons already receiving compensation. They said the new rates should apply only to new cases.

Leach disclosed that after a hearing in Elyria April 6 the BUC's board of review decided the higher rates should be paid in cases involving General Industries, Inc., of Elyria, and Youngstown Steel Tank Co. of Youngstown. Test cases are expected to be filed by the employers in the Common Pleas Courts of Lorain and Mahoning counties.

Ardent Suitor Suffers From Knifing, Beating

LISBON, Portugal (AP) — Virginia Cerejo complained to her brother Maximino that Jose Ferreira was pestering her. Maximino had Virginia make a date with Jose, but the brother dressed up in Virginia's clothes and kept the rendezvous himself. When Jose leaned over to steal a kiss, police reported Maximino whipped out a knife and lopped off the ardent suitor's ear. Maximino's friends jumped out of the bushes and beat up Jose, who now is recovering in the hospital.

the outset when he changes his dollars into Canadian money and pays a premium.

The Canadian Government Travel Bureau here says that American tourists mostly have recovered from their first shock, a few years back, at finding the American dollar valued below the Canadian one at the exchange window. The bureau thinks the new crackdown on coins will have little effect on the volume of tourist trade, or on the dispositions of the visiting, and spending, Americans.

into the stores as Easter neared. Dun & Bradstreet reported a survey of merchants in 66 cities in 41 states showed retail trade in the three weeks before Easter exceeded the similar pre-easter period of last year by two to six per cent.

Biggest increases over last year were in women's apparel, men's suits and topcoats and children's merchandise. The surge in car sales was especially encouraging to business as a whole, which has been watching the trend as a barometer of the economic climate.

Dealers sold 160,420 cars in the first 10 days of April a gain of 11 per cent over a year ago.

"Prospects for continuation of the sales boom appear good and are backed by a public interest in the U.S. compact as each manufacturer bows in this field," said Ward's Automotive Reports.

Output this week was estimated at 143,000, compared with 133,229 last week and 136,101 in the comparable week a year ago. The popular compact accounted for 40,000 of the total, a new weekly high.

Stock sales on the New York Stock Exchange this week amounted to 10,451,000 shares compared with 14,638,070 the previous week and 17,826,640 a year ago. Bond sales amounted to $20,982,500 par value compared with $28,414,750 the previous week and $32,342,500 a year ago.

The Commerce Department reported home building made seasonal gains in March despite unusually poor weather. Builders started 97,000 new dwellings, about 20,000 more than in February.

"The decline of the first two months has been halted; this is very encouraging," said Federal Housing Administrator Norman P. Mason.

Secretary of the Treasury Anderson, reporting on the economic outlook, said, "1960 promises to be the most prosperous year in our history with total output of the nation exceeding a half trillion dollars for the first time."

"But perhaps even more significant," he added, "is the fact that the prospects are better today for a long period of healthy, rewarding and non-inflationary growth than they have been at any time in the past two decades."

The worst March storms in 20 years were reflected in a sharp increase in unemployment. The total jumped above four million, increasing by 275,000 over February.

Employment declined by 253,000 to 64,267,000. Employment usually climbs by about 450,000 between February and March.

Workers in construction, agriculture and trade were particularly hard hit.

The Labor Department predicted the situation would show good improvement in April.

Estimated steel production this week fell below 80 per cent of capacity in the sharpest drop since 1958 as orders from users continued to slow down. The output rate of 79.9 per cent compared with 84.8 per cent the previous week.

However, the industry had a record quarterly production to be happy about. In the first three months of 1960, 74,739,210 tons of steel were produced. This was 949,000 tons above the previous peak attained in the second quarter of 1959.

Ohio Congresswoman Involved In Diplomatic Spending Fuss

WASHINGTON (AP)—It is a long way from Ohio to Hong Kong and London. Nevertheless, Ohio's congresswoman, Rep. Frances P. Bolton (R), speaks with knowledge of all three.

A member of a wealthy Cleveland family she has travelled over a large portion of this sphere we live on — London, Moscow, Paris and an enormous portion of dark Africa, among other places.

So it was not surprising that Mrs. Bolton rather resented all the ridicule aimed at the State Department's foreign language school and the decision to send to London a man who had been taught Chinese.

"May I say that the man in question is an expert in Chinese affairs," she told the House. "He is in London, yes, and probably going to Hong Kong, so it is well for him to stop in London on the way."

"But a great deal of his present work consists of going to Warsaw where he is the interpreter for the Americans in the conversations that are going forward between the Red Chinese and ourselves."

"May I suggest that this is not an important job?"

Her remarks did not, however, go unchallenged by John J. Rooney, the Brooklyn Democrat heading the House Appropriations Subcommittee that seems determined to reduce spending for language training.

"This very important fellow, the student in Chinese they sent to London, according to the printed hearings, they had not the slightest intention of locating him in Hong Kong at all," Rooney said.

"And this business of him having something to do with relations with the Red Chinese in London or in Poland was an afterthought, because they could not justify such a thing before the subcommittee."

To this, Mrs. Bolton replied: "Of course, I must say that I have more confidence than the gentleman from New York (Rooney) appears to have in the judgment of the people who are involved."

That was all Mrs. Bolton had to say at that point. But another Ohioan, Rep. Frank T. Bow, a Canton republican, brought up the subject again.

Bow is a member of Rooney's subcommittee and, like Rooney, casts a suspicious eye on State Department spending.

Bow said he hasn't found anywhere that there was any intention of sending this Chinese — trained man to Hong Kong. The only one he knows of who went to Hong Kong, he said, was a graduate in French.

"So here we have the man who graduated in the Chinese language being sent to London, and the man who had been graduated in French being sent to Hong Kong where they speak Chinese," Bow said.

"This is the type of thing that just does not make sense to the committee."

Canadian Banks Crack Down on American Coins

U.S. Hard Money Gets Evaluation Trim in New Financial Move

By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — Another bargain day is drawing to a close. Americans — and Canadians as well — have been making a few pretty pennies in Canada out of American silver coins. They could buy more with them than with Yankee folding money changed into Canadian currency.

Now the banks north of the border are clamping down with a penalty that hurts—in the pocket-book.

Canada hopes this won't worry American tourists. Few of them carry a load of silver coins anyway. Most change their dollars or traveler's checks into Canadian money at the banks, or hotels, or maybe stores.

The only thing for American tourists to worry about henceforth: Be sure when you get change that it's Canadian silver, not American. That thin American dime will look even thinner after the banks trim it down through a 6 per cent discount.

Until a few days ago, the Yankee coin bought anything a Canadian one would almost anywhere in Canada. And four American quarters bought as much as a Canadian dollar. But you had to have about $1.04 in American money to get a Canadian dollar at the bank. And some time back you had to have as much as $1.06 American.

The 4 to 6 per cent difference in purchasing value—when multiplied by enough transactions—looked good to a lot of sharpshooters. And they have been flooding Canada with American silver in recent months.

In some Canadian bank branches here it's believed that 40 per cent of the coins circulating in Montreal today are American. The Canadian coins have been hoarded as more officially valuable, or taken to the banks and changed into American dollars. (It takes only 96 Canadian cents to buy one.)

Then, if the American dollars can be changed across the line in the United States into American coins and returned to Canada—the profit starts all over again. Canadian bankers here say this has become a racket—not to mention a nuisance. It takes time, trouble and expense to wrap up American coins that do reach the banks and ship them back to the United States. So the banks are charging a 6 per cent discount on them—a full 2 cents over the premium the Canadian dollar commands today.

This is inspiring some Canadian merchants, hotels and so on to put their own, and even higher, discount on American coins offered them.

In Windsor, Ont., across the line from Detroit, some stores are reported discounting American coins by as much as 8 per cent. That is, if you offer them an American quarter, they ask for two more U.S. cents before handing over the goods.

Most affected will be the Americans—and Canadians, too, since they've been in on the so-called racket—who live near the border and cross over frequently to buy on whichever side the best prices seem to be offered.

Tourists are less likely to notice (carrying little silver to start with) unless they let themselves get loaded up with American change after reaching Canada.

The American's pain comes at

Nation's Business Picture Grows Bright over Easter

NEW YORK (AP) — A record Easter shopping season, a continuing increase in automobile sales and a gain in home building have combined to brighten the nation's business picture.

On the darker side were higher unemployment and the steady decline of steel production.

After being discouraged by bad weather during the late winter and early spring, shoppers poured into the stores as Easter neared. Dun & Bradstreet reported a survey of merchants in 66 cities in 41 states showed retail trade in the three weeks before Easter exceeded the similar pre-easter period of last year by two to six per cent.

Biggest increases over last year were in women's apparel, men's suits and topcoats and children's merchandise.

The surge in car sales was especially encouraging to business as a whole, which has been watching the trend as a barometer of the economic climate.

Dealers sold 160,420 cars in the first 10 days of April a gain of 11 per cent over a year ago.

"Prospects for continuation of the sales boom appear good and are backed by a public interest in the U.S. compact as each manufacturer bows in this field," said Ward's Automotive Reports.

Output this week was estimated at 143,000, compared with 133,299 last week and 136,101 in the comparable week a year ago. The popular compact accounted for 40,000 of the total, a new weekly high.

Stock sales on the New York Stock Exchange this week amounted to 10,451,000 shares compared with 14,638,070 the previous week and 17,826,640 a year ago. Bond sales amounted to $20,982,500 par value compared with $28,414,750 the previous week and $32,342,500 a year ago.

The Commerce Department reported home building made seasonal gains in March despite unusually poor weather. Builders started 97,000 new dwellings, about 20,000 more than in February.

"The decline of the first two months has been halted; this is very encouraging," said Federal Housing Administrator Norman P. Mason.

Secretary of the Treasury Anderson, reporting on the economic outlook, said, "1960 promises to be the most prosperous year in our history with total output of the nation exceeding a half trillion dollars for the first time."

"But perhaps even more significant," he added, "is the fact that the prospects are better today for a long period of healthy, rewarding and non-inflationary growth than they have been at any time in the past two decades."

The worst March storms in 20 years were reflected in a sharp increase in unemployment. The total jumped above four million, increasing by 275,000 over February.

Employment declined by 253,000 to 64,267,000. Employment usually climbs by about 450,000 between February and March.

Workers in construction, agriculture and trade were particularly hard hit.

The Labor Department predicted the situation would show good improvement in April.

Estimated steel production this week fell below 80 per cent of capacity in the sharpest drop since 1958 as orders from users continued to slow down. The output rate of 79.9 per cent compared with 84.8 per cent the previous week.

However, the industry had a record quarterly production to be happy about. In the first three months of 1960, 34,739,210 tons of steel were produced. This was 949,000 tons above the previous peak attained in the second quarter of 1959.

Maximino's friends jumped out of the bushes and beat up Jose, who now is recovering in the hospital.

The Canadian Government Travel Bureau here says that American tourists mostly have recovered from their first shock, a few years back, at finding the American dollar valued below the Canadian one at the exchange window. The bureau thinks the new crackdown on coins will have little effect on the volume of tourist trade, or on the dispositions of the visiting, and spending, Americans.

Ohio Congresswoman Involved In Diplomatic Spending Fuss

WASHINGTON (AP)—It is a long way from Ohio to Hong Kong and London. Nevertheless, Ohio's congresswoman, Rep. Frances P. Bolton (R.), speaks with knowledge of all three.

A member of a wealthy Cleveland family she has travelled over a large portion of this sphere we live on — London, Moscow, Paris and an enormous portion of dark Africa, among other places.

So it was not surprising that Mrs. Bolton rather resented all the ridicule aimed at the State Department's foreign language school and the decision to send to London a man who had been taught Chinese.

"May I say that the man in question is an expert in Chinese affairs," she told the House. "He is in London, yes, and probably going to Hong Kong, so it is well for him to stop in London on the way."

"But a great deal of his present work consists of going to Warsaw where he is the interpreter for the Americans in the conversations that are going forward between the Red Chinese and ourselves."

Her remarks did not, however, go unchallenged by John J. Rooney, the Brooklyn Democrat heading the House Appropriations Subcommittee that seems determined to reduce spending for language training.

Baby Boom Cost Is High

Almost every prediction for a booming economy more schools and more taxes in the 1950s has been based upon the continuing baby boom since World War II. So it's no wonder there's been a temporary flap at the news that there was a surprising drop in the U. S. birth rate in January. With only 22.3 births per 1,000 persons in the first month of this year, the rate was the lowest since the mid-1940s.

If the drop continues will it have an impact wider than merely on diaper and baby food sales? Will it affect businessmen's capital spending plans?

Cuban Underground Movement

Appeals to the Cuban people to take up arms against Dictator Castro have been issued by the Movement of Revolutionary Recovery, an underground organization made up of former followers of Castro. The appeals are directed at fears of communism.

Defections from the Castro ranks seem to be increasing as Cuba's economy draws closer to a debacle. Already it must be becoming painfully clear to many Cubans that the hairy one cannot steal their rich. It is too early to determine whether the

Entertainment Is a Gamble

NEW YORK (AP) — Director Sidney Lumet believes there is one thing wrong with mass-produced entertainment — it doesn't entertain the masses.

"Entertainment in the future will have to do more than just divert a man from his worries," he said. "It will have to give him something."

"Man is getting a lot more curious. He wants something in his life that will make him feel differently, to see differently—a sense of discovery."

"He is not just looking for a sleeping pill."

At 35, Lumet, who began acting at the age of 5, has put his directorial stamp on several hundred television shows, two Broadway plays and four films.

The young director has an acid disdain for big-business influence in the creative fields.

Box Office Speaks Strong

The box office continues to speak volubly in the motion picture business, which is the manufacture of pictures for sale as an amusement. Its objective is large incomes for those who engage in the business and for the companies that undertake these manufactures and the banks that underwrite them.

Actors, producers, directors, writers take refuge in the word, Art, whenever they are caught in delicto. The theory is that the word, Art, is an alibi for licentiousness, wickedness, drunkenness, and even Communism. But there is no particular Art involved in this business, except that rarely such a producer as D. W. Griffith or Cecil B. de Mille rises above the box office and becomes a poet in his own right. Few Hollywood writers have any right to call their synthetic copy, written and re-written, worked over by many hands, finally kneaded into the dough of productivity by such a master of the business as the late Louis B. Mayer, Art.

Frank Sinatra went into the singing business after a short and unsuccessful spell as a fighter on the New Jersey coast. He had some talent which a press agent worked up into a brilliant public response. Adolescents either squealed or swooned at the right moment. However, such responses become contagious and Sinatra became a success. I once heard him sing like a real baritone and it was not bad at all, although neither his voice nor his pitch would have made a Metropolitan Opera audition.

Frank Sinatra lived those early years in the peace of a frightened young man. He earned a large fortune. He was married to a fine woman, Nancy, whom everyone respected and they had a family.

Suddenly, Sinatra became a big shot, a great figure, mentioned in all the peep-hole columns, often most unfavorably but the name was always spelled correctly. He began to chase dames and punch newspapermen for peaching on him. In due course, his family was broken up and he chased Ava Gardner around the world in the most advanced press agency. His wife, Nancy Sinatra, never remarried but Frankie the Tycoon and Ava Gardner kissed in public, quarrelled in public, divorced in pub-

Has there been a decline in marriages? Or are there fewer women in the reproductive age group? Or — most startling thought of all — have Americans decided to quit having so many babies?

The January dip quite likely only a temporary decline. But it revealed to what an extent the economy is dependent upon the baby crib population. It makes many groan to think of the tax costs involved in an ever greater baby population. But a reverse trend is a chilling thought, isn't it?

anti-Castro agitation is strong enough at the moment to be significant. But it is growing, and in the past extremes always have bred other extremes.

"But I don't believe mass-produced entertainment winds up as real entertainment. It winds up as time-filler—like so many drops of water on the head."

"And the pay-TV boys won't solve the problem. They'll only be making you pay for 'Queen for a Day' instead of letting you see it for nothing."

"An interesting thing to me is that not one of the pay-TV systems has guaranteed that it won't carry paid advertising—not one."

lic and made a spectacle of themselves in public.

Then Frank decided that he would do no more of his funny singing, that he would become a serious actor and surprisingly, he did remarkably well. At any rate, he appeared in a number of motion pictures and television shows. No longer wed to anyone, Sinatra dated, as they call it, a number of women, most of whom were duly reported in the peep-hole columns. How would the peep-holders know about it if no one told them?

So Frank Sinatra decided to become a big businessman and set out to make a picture which he would himself, own, produce, control and profit by. Did he pick a noble or a jovial theme? Not he. He picked the story of an army deserter in war - time, one who was caught deserting and duly treated as a coward's should be. But for Frank Sinatra, this deserter, Slovik, had some special appeal. So he hired one of the Hollywood Ten, perhaps the most irreconcilable one, to write about a deserter in time of war. It is like the Ford Foundation subsidizing an opera on the Sacco and Vanzetti Case as its first contribution to American opera. The insulting profanity of Sinatra's action outraged a sufficiently large section of the American people to force him to back down. He fired the writer, Albert Maltz, and that will not go unnoted by other Hollywood money-grubbers who committed moral outrages in the name of Art. But is he still to glorify a deserter in war-time?

The so-called purveyors of Art object to being censured or censored. They seek to make art unrealistic by removing it from life. In its name, they believe that they should be permitted to commit every outrage against public opinion. But as these are just businessmen, seeking fast dough, like other businessmen, they are everlastingly conscious of the box office where they count their pennies. And as such, they will discover what their forerunners did in 1947 that enough Americans can stay away from their box offices to put them into bankruptcy. And for businessmen, it is money that talks.

Try and Stop Me

A PATIENT in a college infirmary was convalescing from an emergency appendectomy. "How are you doing?" inquired a solicitous visitor. "All right now, I guess," said the patient, "but it was rough yesterday. First they opened me up again to take out a sponge they left in me. Then they repeated to remove a scalpel they had forgotten."

Just then the doctor stuck his head in the room to demand, "Anybody see my hat and overshoes around here?" The patient fainted.

Two business associates met at the entrance of an expensive psychiatrist's office. "Hello, Oscar," exclaimed one, "are you coming or going?" "Listen, Joe," advised the other, "if I knew that, I wouldn't be here."

new and just-as-great-as-ever of Germany and Khrushchev's push to get them out of West Berlin.

He is the prime example of a man who can start out without a dime and wind up being president. When he escaped to England during the Nazi occupation of France in World War II, his country was flat on its back.

He had no army but by his vision and his faith in the future of France he made himself both the symbol of his country undaunted and a rallying point for French freedom.

In his pride in a France of the future—which often looked like arrogance—he annoyed President Roosevelt. There was even the suspicion that what he aspired to was a dictatorship.

But when he returned to a liberated France, the power he held only briefly he abandoned to the politicians whom he seems to despise. But it was long enough to show that he believed in a democratic government and that he was much to the left of any American president, before or since, in his social and economic thinking.

He came out of retirement to save France from a new chaos of his own making. It is as head of a France he revitalized that he comes here now to see Eisenhower before they meet May 16 at the summit in Paris with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev and British Prime Minister Harold Macmillan.

What does he want at the summit? What do he and Eisenhower have to talk about? It is not clear.

Last week his foreign minister agreed with the American, British and West German foreign ministers that the West will take a firm stand against the division of Germany and Khrushchev's push to get them out of West Berlin.

De Gaulle appears to want Britain and this country to get agreement with Khrushchev on East-West control of weapons, shipped to underdeveloped countries in Asia and Africa.

Also he seems to want the Soviet Union and the West to coordinate their ideas on economic aid to backward peoples. The United States has been cold to both proposals.

De Gaulle, who tries to take a long view of history, may be right in his ideas about cooperation with the Soviet Union on weapons and aid. In the end this country may be glad to make such a deal.

Two examples show the extreme determination of De Gaulle in refusing to let France lose its identity or to depend on the mercy or friendship of anyone:

1. His resistance against letting French military forces be integrated with their allies in NATO. He tells Frenchmen that the task of defending France belongs first to Frenchmen.

2. Although the United States and the Soviet Union were years ahead in nuclear development he pushed and is pushing French development.

It is easy to see how he could envision the time when the two big nuclear powers, the United States and the Soviet Union, might decide to divide the world between them.

It can hardly be done so long as France becomes a third nuclear power. This, in De Gaulle's mind, could make France the balancing power in the world.

Attention, Mr. Farmer

There's a lot of controversy from the Packers as to the wonderful yields from the cattle bought at our April 6th Sale at Pickaway Livestock Auction. Farmers who are taking their cattle off feed night before and moving them in early benefit from this by getting the TOP dollars out of their cattle. Shrink check was conducted on 34 head selling at our sale April 6th: 1.5% to 2% was the result. Mr. Farmer, aren't YOU in favor of this? It's worth it to condition your cattle to keep the Buyers! So let's keep up the good work! Thanks!

Daby Boom Cost Is High

Almost every prediction for a booming economy, more schools and more taxes in the 1960s has been based upon the continuing baby boom since World War II. So it's no wonder there's been a temporary flap at the news that there was a surprising drop in the U. S. birth rate in January. With only 22.3 births per 1,000 persons in the first month of this year, the rate was the lowest since the mid-1940s.

If the drop continues will it have an impact wider than merely on diaper and baby food scales? Will it affect businessmen's capital spending plans?

Has there been a decline in marriages? Or are there fewer women in the reproductive age group? Or — most startling thought of all — have Americans decided to quit having so many babies?

The January dip quite likely only a temporary decline. But it revealed to what an extent the economy is dependent upon the baby crib population. It makes many groan to think of the tax costs involved in an ever greater baby population. But a reverse trend is a chilling thought, isn't it?

Cuban Underground Movement

Appeals to the Cuban people to take up arms against Dictator Castro have been issued by the Movement of Revolutionary Recovery, an underground organization made up of former followers of Castro. The appeals are directed at fears of communism.

Defections from the Castro ranks seem to be increasing as Cuba's economy draws closer to a debacle. Already it must be becoming painfully clear to many Cubans that the hairy one cannot steal them rich. It is too early to determine whether the anti-Castro agitation is strong enough at the moment to be significant. But it is growing, and in the past extremes always have bred other extremes.

Box Office Speaks Strong

The box office continues to speak volubly in the motion picture business, which is the manufacture of pictures for sale as an amusement. Its objective is large incomes for those who engage in the business and for the companies that undertake these manufactures and the banks that underwrite them.

Actors, producers, directors, writers take refuge in the word, Art, whenever they are caught in delicto. The theory is that the word, Art, is an alibi for licentiousness, wickedness, drunkenness, and even Communism. But there is no particular Art involved in this business, except that rarely such a producer as D. W. Griffith or Cecil B. de Mille rises above the box office and becomes a poet in his own right. Few Hollywood writers have any right to call their synthetic copy, written and re-written, worked over by many hands, finally kneaded into the dough of productivity by such a master of the business as the late Louis B. Mayer, Art.

Frank Sinatra went into the singing business after a short and unsuccessful spell as a fighter on the New Jersey coast. He had some talent which a press agent worked up into a brilliant public response. Adolescents either squealed or swooned at the right moment. However, such responses become contagious and Sinatra became a success. I once heard him sing like a real baritone and it was not bad at all, although neither his voice nor his pitch would have made a Metropolitan Opera audition.

Frank Sinatra lived those early years in the peace of a frightened young man. He earned a large fortune. He was married to a fine woman, Nancy, whom everyone respected and they had a family. Suddenly, Sinatra became a big shot, a great figure, mentioned in all the peep-hole columns, often most unfavorably but the name was always spelled correctly. He began to chase dames and punch newspapermen for peaching on him. In due course, his family was broken up and he chased Ava Gardner around the world in the most advanced press agency. His wife, Nancy Sinatra, never remarried but Frankie the Tycoon and Ava Gardner kissed in public, quarrelled in public, divorced in public.

A PATIENT in a college infirmary was convalescing from an emergency appendectomy. "How are you doing?" inquired a solicitous visitor. "All right now, I guess," said the patient, "but it was rough yesterday. First they opened me up again to take out a sponge they left in me. Then they repeated to remove a scalpel they had forgotten." Just then the doctor stuck his head in the room to demand, "Anybody see my hat and overshoes around here?" The patient faints.

Poisoning of Inlaw Brings 2-Year Term
ULM, Germany (AP)—Johanna Oechle drew a 2-year prison term for feeding her mother-in-law rat poison even though the bottle was labeled "Not dangerous for human life." The court convicted the 50-year-old woman of attempted murder after she said she couldn't read the label anyway because she is nearsighted. She admitted trying to kill the old lady because "life with her was hell."

The World Today
By James Marlow
WASHINGTON (AP) — Frenchmen call him Big Charlie. He thinks big, too, but not always along the same lines as his allies. Since he is also stubborn, he can be a problem for them and they for him.
So, when French President Charles de Gaulle comes here Friday for a solid weekend of talks with President Eisenhower, neither is likely to have his mind changed about anything. But, since they are old friends, they should get along.
Because he is 6-foot-4, De Gaulle has been able to look down on people. But his air of pride, grandeur, silence and aloofness are to some extent deliberately created.
He has explained that such an air gives him the prestige and authority he feels are needed for his special role as the leader of a new and just-as-great-as-ever France.
He is the prime example of a man who can start out without a dime and wind up being president. When he escaped to England during the Nazi occupation of France in World War II, his country was flat on its back.

Golden-Voiced Harold Arlin Now Inconspicuous Engineer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It is no happenstance that Harold W. Arlin, industrial relations manager at the Mansfield works of Westinghouse, is noted for his pleasant voice.

Arlin's voice was once the most celebrated vocal organ in the land. He was the first full-time radio announcer in the United States and his coverage of the Cox-Harding election on KDKA, Pittsburgh, in 1920 was one of the great stepping stones by which radio progressed.

Arlin, still talking, but in a different context, will speak to a meeting of the Ohio Society of Safety Engineers in Columbus Monday night. Considering the quiet nature of the man, it is probably a good thing that in 1925 he decided to shift from radio announcing to industrial management.

It is difficult to visualize the present day Harold Arlin wearing a pearlized leather car coat and jockeying a foreign sports car around. Much more difficult is the vision of his making pop talk in the interest of attracting the rock and roll set.

When he started in the business radio was a very low-keyed business.

Studios and equipment were pretty crude affairs in those days and radio broadcasting was little more than a scientist's plaything.

An inconspicuous engineer for Westinghouse, Arlin didn't dream there would come a day when the

London Times called him "the best known American voice in Europe."

"It was fun while it lasted and gave me a lot of unforgettable memories, but I have no regrets over leaving," he says.

He recalled that the KDKA broadcast of the Harding-Cox vote results in the 1920 election was the first regularly scheduled broadcast in the history of radio. Arlin was 24 at the time.

Reminiscing, Arlin says: "The studio then was a wooden shack on the roof of a nine-story Westinghouse factory building in east Pittsburgh.

"Programs consisted exclusively of phonograph recordings and were on for only a few hours in the evening. Engineers or anyone who happened to be around did the announcing at first. Then a friend of mine suggested I try for a regular announcing job. I visited the studio, announced a few numbers and then worked from that day until I quit in 1925."

No one is likely to compete with him for the title of "world's first disc jockey."

Arlin made the first play-by-play broadcast of a football game in 1921 when the University of Pittsburgh played West Virginia University at Forbes Field, home of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Of that event, Arlin said:

"The microphone we used looked like a tomato can with a felt lining. We called it a mushophone."

The first performers at live shows "literally worked for coffee and cake," Arlin recalls. "All the pay they got was the light lunch we served after the show."

When Jack Dempsey fought Louis Firpo for the heavyweight championship in 1923, Arlin was doing the honors. The line broke just as Firpo knocked Dempsey out of the ring.

The standby announcer grabbed the nearest piece of copy and read into the mike "... with hogs up two cents a pound. Two carloads of young veal coming in this morning."

After the line was repaired, Arlin went on with the fight.

Babe Ruth once got miked fright and froze solid, unable to utter a word. Arlin grabbed the Babe's script and read the speech. Ruth got congratulated for days afterward.

Arlin also did the announcing in KDKA's first shortwave broadcast to Great Britain in 1923, to Johannesburg in 1924 and to Melbourne in 1925.

Pickaway Grange

Star Grange met in regular session Tuesday evening in the Monroe School auditorium with Worthy Master Russell Shannon presiding.

The Home Economics chairman, Mrs. Herman Porter reported the next meeting will be the baking and sewing contest and urged members to participate.

She announced that she was still collecting old eye glasses and also Star Grange will serve lunch at the next card party, May 14th, at the Fairground Coliseum.

A contribution was made to Magnetic Springs and Mrs. C. E. Dick reported that one flower had been purchased since the last meeting.

AN APPEAL for aid was answered and Harold Furniss announced that the District Ritualistic and drill contest will be held Thursday at Frankfort and urged members to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wrights were nominated as Grange couple of the year and a committee of Mrs. Clinton Ritchie, Mrs. Clyde Michel and Harold Furniss were named to assist.

The lecturer, Mrs. Clyde Michel, urged eligible youth to participate in the essay contest on "Highway Safety."

The program "April Fancies" opened with the thought for the day by Mrs. Dick, and Mrs. Michel gave a health fact. Miss Patty Schleich sang a solo "Trees" and Miss Betty Ann Grabill played a piano solo.

Mrs. Shirley Anderson read the "Easter Story" from Matthew with a tableau on the stage with Arthur Dick, Pat Dawson, Mrs. Helen Phillips and Mrs. Francis Furniss taking parts. Mrs. Paul Long gave a reading "Ten Commandments of fire prevention".

A quiz contest on trees was held with Mrs. Herman Porter winning the prize for correct answers.

GEORGE HAMRICK, County Agent, gave an interesting and educational talk on "Recreational and Chemical Safety" and then showed slides of "The Life of J. Oker" which proved most entertaining and interesting.

The next meeting on April 26th will feature a program on "Bird Lore" with slides.

Refreshments were served by Mr. and Mrs. Paul Long, Mr. and Mrs. William Neff, Mrs. Lloyd Neff and Mrs. John Riddle.

More Regional Meetings Due On Ohio Education Problem

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio educators began preparing for the second Statehouse Conference on Education, slated for next January, as they met Friday at Ohio State University.

This, the first regional education meeting, was one of six planned. Next Tuesday there is a meeting at Ohio University, Athens; Wednesday at Bowling Green University; Friday at Kent State University; Saturday at Miami University, Oxford; and April 30 at Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

At Friday's session, delegates concluded that Ohio's tax structure will be hard pressed to meet the billion-dollar-a-year budget expected for public education within 10 years.

William M. Ware, Cleveland Plain Dealer Sunday editor and conference chairman, told delegates that public education in Ohio now costs 550 million dollars a year. This will increase to 900 million within 10 years even if there is no increase in per-pupil costs, he said.

He added that since the per-pupil costs can be expected to rise, the total should go over the billion mark.

State Rep. Myrl Shoemaker (D-Ross) said relief will have to come through federal aid, state aid or higher real estate taxes. Rep. Kenneth Creasy (R-Delaware) suggested the state might boost its share of school operating costs to 40-50 per cent because of the pressure on real estate taxes, now about 34 per cent.

About 125 attended the session. Local superintendents and school board presidents are conferring with Ware. Then they set up study groups to gather facts on local school systems. State representatives or senators, usually members of the education committees of the Legislature, will attend the regional meetings.

At local meetings in the fall, groups will discuss "What Do We Want From Our Schools?" (in October) and "How Do We Get What We Want?" (November). They also will elect delegates to the November meetings to attend the statehouse conference.

Businessmen Grumble about Billboard Ban

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—The Highway Department said today that some of its division engineers in eastern Ohio are getting protests from businessmen who have been directed to remove roadside billboards.

The department announced Feb. 18 that it will use two state laws to clamp down on roadside signs.

One statute makes it illegal to have any kind of advertising device partly or entirely on state property without consent of the voke his permission at any time.

The other prohibits most advertising devices within 600 feet of the right-of-way of highway on the interstate system, if it is built on new locations outside city limits. This does not apply to information the law requires be posted, name of a property owner or identification of a business on the premises, "for sale" signs or directional signals.

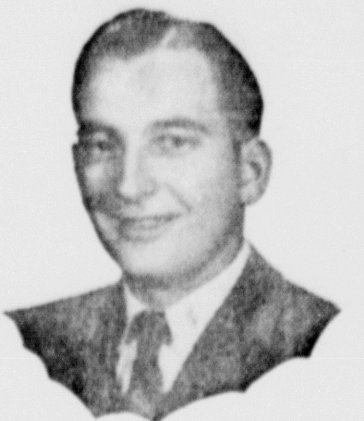

The complaints came from persons in Guernsey and Belmont counties who have advertising along the present route of U.S. 40.

Executive Secretary Robert M. Wallace said. If they fail to act in a reasonable time, he added, the department will have a sheriff's notice served and the director of highways may request common pleas court action.

T. Dye Barnhouse, deputy director for operations, said everyone having advertising equipment affected by the laws is being notified by registered letter. No complaints have reached department headquarters here directly, he said.

Golden-Voiced Harold Arlin Now Inconspicuous Engineer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—It is no happenstance that Harold W. Arlin, industrial relations manager at the Mansfield works of Westinghouse, is noted for his pleasant voice.

Arlin's voice was once the most celebrated vocal organ in the land. He was the first full-time radio announcer in the United States and his coverage of the Cox-Harding election on KDKA, Pittsburgh, in 1920 was one of the great stepping stones by which radio progressed.

Arlin, still talking, but in a different context, will speak to a meeting of the Ohio Society of Safety Engineers in Columbus Monday night. Considering the quiet nature of the man, it is probably a good thing that in 1925 he decided to shift from radio announcing to industrial management.

It is difficult to visualize the present day Harold Arlin wearing a pearlized leather car coat and jockeying a foreign sports car around. Much more difficult is the vision of his making pop talk in the interest of attracting the rock and roll set.

When he started in the business radio was a very low-keyed business.

Studios and equipment were pretty crude affairs in those days and radio broadcasting was little more than a scientist's plaything.

An inconspicuous engineer for Westinghouse, Arlin didn't dream there would come a day when the

London Times called him "the best known American voice in Europe."

"It was fun while it lasted and gave me a lot of unforgettable memories, but I have no regrets over leaving," he says.

He recalled that the KDKA broadcast of the Harding-Cox vote results in the 1920 election was the first regularly scheduled broadcast in the history of radio. Arlin was 24 at the time.

Reminiscing, Arlin says: "The studio then was a wooden shack on the roof of a nine-story Westinghouse factory building in east Pittsburgh.

"Programs consisted exclusively of phonograph recordings and were on for only a few hours in the evening. Engineers or anyone who happened to be around did the announcing at first. Then a friend of mine suggested I try for a regular announcing job. I visited the studio, announced a few numbers and then worked from that day until I quit in 1925."

No one is likely to compete with him for the title of "world's first disc jockey."

Arlin made the first play-by-play broadcast of a football game in 1921 when the University of Pittsburgh played West Virginia University at Forbes Field, home of the Pittsburgh Pirates. Of that event, Arlin said:

"The microphone we used looked like a tomato can with a felt lining. We called it a mushroom."

The first performers at live shows "literally worked for coffee and cake" Arlin recalls. "All the pay they got was the light lunch we served after the show."

When Jack Dempsey fought Louis Firpo for the heavyweight championship in 1923, Arlin was doing the honors. The line broke just as Firpo knocked Dempsey out of the ring.

The standby announcer grabbed the nearest piece of copy and read into the mike "... with hogs up two cents a pound. Two carloads of young veal coming in this morning."

After the line was repaired, Arlin went on with the fight.

Babe Ruth once got Mike Wright and froze solid, unable to utter a word. Arlin grabbed the Babe's script and read the speech. Ruth got congratulated for days afterward.

Arlin also did the announcing in KDKA's first shortwave broadcast to Great Britain in 1923, to Johannesburg in 1924 and to Melbourne in 1925.

More Regional Meetings Due On Ohio Education Problem

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio educators began preparing for the second Statehouse Conference on Education, slated for next January, as they met Friday at Ohio State University.

This, the first regional education meeting, was one of six planned. Next Tuesday there is a meeting at Ohio University, Athens; Wednesday at Bowling Green University; Friday at Kent State University; Saturday at Miami University, Oxford; and April 30 at Western Reserve University, Cleveland.

At Friday's session, delegates concluded that Ohio's tax structure will be hard pressed to meet the billion-dollar-a-year budget expected for public education within 10 years.

William M. Ware, Cleveland Plain Dealer Sunday editor and conference chairman, told delegates that public education in Ohio now costs 550 million dollars a year. This will increase to 900 million within 10 years even if there is no increase in per-pupil costs, he said.

He added that since the per-pupil

costs can be expected to rise, the total should go over the billion mark.

State Rep. Myrl Shoemaker (D-Ross) said relief will have to come through federal aid, state aid or higher real estate taxes. Rep. Kenneth Creasy (R-Delaware) suggested the state might boost its share of school operating costs to 40-50 per cent because of the pressure on real estate taxes, now about 34 per cent.

About 125 attended the session. Local superintendents and school board presidents are conferring with Ware. Then they set up study groups to gather facts on local school systems. State representatives or senators, usually members of the education committees of the Legislature, will attend the regional meetings.

At local meetings in the fall, groups will discuss "What Do We Want From Our Schools?" (in October) and "How Do We Get What We Want?" (November). They also will elect delegates to the November meetings to attend the statehouse conference.

Boy of Year Gives Special Dating Tips to Girls

By VIVIAN BROWN
"There are lots of good boys around if you are seeking dates," Nick Beck, 17, of Hollywood, Calif., advises girls. "So why settle for less?"

Nick, the 1960 Boy of the Year, ought to know. He had to win over some 600,000 other good boys (we hope) all members of the Boys' Clubs of America.

What kind of advice does this handsome, healthy, jolly boy dish up for girls? How does he say they can tell a good boy from a bad one? Here's a yardstick for you, girls. Let's see how that current date measures up:

1. What kind of friends does the boy enjoy? (Birds of a feather flock together.)

2. Does he take school seriously? (An indication of how he will apply himself to other projects.)

3. How about his personal appearance? (He should be clean and well-groomed and take pride in himself.)

4. Does he stand outside "beating the horn" when he calls for you at home? (He should appear cordial, polite, mannerly and greet your parents before you go out.)

5. Does he persist in spending the evening at your house even though he has invited you out? (Either you can't see the reason he likes you or you don't want to see it.)

Those are little guideposts, says Nick, but they hold true of many boys. He adds:

"It's wise not to accept a date just because you want to be popular. It's dangerous. Dutch treats are all right until the boy becomes a serious dater. It is not good after you become engaged because the boy seems more like an escort than a permanent date, and you will feel that he really doesn't care enough to save his money for your enjoyment."

Nick doesn't believe in blind dates.

"The only time a blind date is all right is when reliable people get you together. It's wise in most cases not to go out with a boy about whom you know nothing."

What kind of girl does this sensible, intelligent, realistic boy like? His surprising ideal is: Beautiful, blonde, shapely and DUMB.

Why dumb, Nick explains:

"Marriage depends on the man's maturity more than the girl's. It is the custom of our society that the man should be head of the house, the wage earner, smarter than his spouse. It works out better when she's not as bright as her husband."

Although Nick is from the film city, he has no desire to be in the movies and would reject an offer, he says, because "there is no use trying to be something you aren't. It would ruin me characterwise."

He adds: "Besides I don't need a swimming pool. There's a perfectly good big one at the Boys' Club of Hollywood."

Ingredients: 3 pounds sirloin steak (1 to 1½ inches thick), butter, salt, pepper, 2 cups thin strips onions, 1 large green pepper (cut in thin strips (2 tablespoons dry or medium sherry).

Method: Remove most of fat from around steak. Slowly heat a heavy skillet (just large enough to hold meat) until very hot; coat bottom and sides with butter held on the end of a fork. Add steak; brown rapidly over high heat on both sides; reduce heat if necessary to cook to desired doneness. Sprinkle with salt and freshly ground pepper; remove to hot platter and keep warm. Pour off any fat in pan but leave a good coating—1 or 2 tablespoons along with drippings. Add onions and peppers; cook and stir rapidly until they take on brown of drippings; add salt and sherry; reduce heat and cook until as limp as desired. Serve with steak. Makes 4 servings.

SLIMMING DOWN — Carol Tregoff, in court in Los Angeles to prepare for the second trial with Dr. Bernard Finch in the killing of his wife, is a good deal slimmer than when the first trial ended. Dear Abby...

By Abigail VanBuren

I'm Rather Modest, Too!

DEAR ABBY: In your opinion do you think the "Facts of Life" should be taught to boys and girls together in the same classroom?

Maybe I am old-fashioned, Abby, but I am a senior girl and it embarrasses me to sit there and have the teacher point out the reproductive organs on a big chart with boys in the room. Believe me, I don't think there is anything dirty about the human body or reproduction but there are certain laws of nature that girls should learn with girls and boys should learn with boys. If I had my way I would walk out of the classroom and take an F, but I want to graduate. Does anyone else feel the way I do, I wonder?

MODEST GIRL

DEAR MODEST: I do.

DEAR ABBY: The letter in your column signed "HURT" is my case exactly—only just the opposite.

I am the younger daughter, 15, and my sister is 22 and married. She has a husband to support her, but my mother is always buying her things. Clothes and stuff for her kids and things for her house. I don't see why my mother has to buy her anything any more. After all, she doesn't live here. When I ask my mother for a new dress or pair of shoes she says I have plenty. You know, Abby, a girl can always use another skirt or blouse or pair of shoes. Do you think it is fair of my mother to buy my married sister things when I could use more?

Reds Pilot Storms as Reliever Flops

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"When I get called out there," said relief pitcher Bill Henry, "I cut loose with everything I've got on the first pitch."

"If they hit my fast ball, I'm in trouble. That's when I know I'm off."

Henry got into trouble quickly Sunday and the Cincinnati Reds lost what looked like a sure-thing nightcap victory over Pittsburgh.

The sudden reversal of fortune so infuriated the dismayed Reds' manager Fred Hutchinson, he stormed out of Forbes Field minutes after the Pirates completed a doubleheader sweep, 5-0 and 6-5.

The opener was easy for Pittsburgh's Bob Friend, who gave the Reds only four hits.

But the Reds' hitters got together in the nightcap and produced a similar 5-0 lead through eight innings.

First Don Newcombe, then Paul Sanchez kept the Pirates harmless. Hutch didn't say why, but he put Henry on the mound to finish out the last inning.

A great tattoo ensued. Singles by Smoky Burgess, Bill Virdon and Bill Mazeroski put over one run. A pinch homer by Hal Smith added three more.

Henry was yanked and Ted Wiant went in to try to hold the line. But Dick Groat singled and Bob Skinner banged a game-winning homer.

The Reds needed a good reliever badly when they acquired Henry from Chicago's Cubs last inter.

Hutchinson has been trying to keep the new bullpen specialist in trim because "if he isn't active he gets rusty."

Booster Club Ready for Skate Party

The Circleville Booster Club has completed plans for its skating party at Circle "D" Recreation Wednesday.

Activity will start at 7:30 p. m. and last until 10. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

John Dietrich, owner of Circle "D", has donated use of the skating rink. Proceeds from the event will be used by the Booster Club in its campaign to initiate 7th and 8th grade football here this fall.

The Booster committee heading the project is composed of Jerry Easter, Don Hannahs and Frank Gill. They said adults and students alike are invited for an evening of fun.

Dietrich said skates may be obtained at the rink for the usual rental fee. Music and floor supervision will be provided.

Tigers in Split At Hillsboro Field

The Tigers of Circleville split a doubleheader at Hillsboro Saturday, winning the first game, 12-5, and dropping the second, 5-3.

The twinbill marked opening of SCOL play for the Tigers. Hillsboro previously posted League wins over Greenfield and Washington C. H.

Right-hander Sam Weller won his second game in two starts in Saturday's opener. He was aided by 12 hits on the part of his mates.

Danny Leonhardt was charged with the loss in the second test. He allowed only six hits, but was handicapped with six Tiger errors.

TIGERS Jim Wellington, Harry Strawser and Jim Tootle led the hitting attack in the opening game. Wellington was three-for-five, and Strawser and Tootle two-for-three.

Strawser, Circleville's slugging catcher, lost credit for a homerun by failing to touch second base. His blast went deep into left center. He also pounded a triple in the second tilt.

Circleville got off to a good start with seven runs in the second inning. The locals scored two more in the fourth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh. Hillsboro picked up one in the first, three in the fifth and one in the seventh.

Weller fanned five and walked none. Johnson and Daniels handled mound duties for Hillsboro, whiffing 10 and walking five.

In the second game the score was deadlocked at 2-2 at the end of the scheduled five-inning test, requiring two extra frames. Hillsboro rallied for three in the seventh while the Tigers came back with one in their half of the final stanza.

Sophomore first sacker Dick Kline paced the Tigers at the plate, hitting safely all three times at bat. One of his blasts was a double.

Leonhardt hurled tight ball, fanning seven and walking four. Kessler picked up the win on nine strikeouts and two walks.

Coach Dick Fisher's squad resumes action tomorrow with an SCO test at Washington C. H. The Blue Lions stand 4-2 for the season and 2-1 in league play.

Friday the Tigers entertain Greenfield in another SCO battle.

Ashville Tops Triad; Leads DV League

Ashville took undisputed first place in the Darby Valley Baseball League Thursday with a convincing 11-3 victory at Triad.

Richard Wilcox allowed five hits, struck out six and walked three in registering the Broncos' third straight DV win. The losing hurler was Rutan, who fanned three and issued six free passes.

Triad took an early 1-0 lead. Ashville sailed to a 5-1 margin in the top half of the second stanza. It was a seesaw battle until the top of the seventh when Jim Brown uncorked a bases-loaded double to drive in three runs.

The only extra base hit was Jimmy Gregg's double. The Broncos smashed nine hits in all. Gregg and Tom Rathburn each had two. Lincoln went 2 for 3 for Triad.

Posting a 3-0 slate in DV play, the Broncos have tentatively scheduled a contest with Amanda tomorrow. The Pickaway County Tournament is slated to start today.

Reds Pilot Storms as Reliever Flops

PITTSBURGH (AP)—"When I get called out there," said relief pitcher Bill Henry, "I cut loose with everything I've got on the first pitch."

"If they hit my fast ball, I'm in trouble. That's when I know I'm off."

Henry got into trouble quickly Sunday and the Cincinnati Reds lost what looked like a sure-thing nightcap victory over Pittsburgh.

The sudden reversal of fortune so infuriated the dismayed Reds' manager Fred Hutchinson, he stormed out of Forbes Field minutes after the Pirates completed a doubleheader sweep, 5-0 and 6-5.

The opener was easy for Pittsburgh's Bob Friend, who gave the Reds only four hits.

But the Reds' hitters got together in the nightcap and produced a similar 5-0 lead through eight innings.

First Don Newcombe, then Paul Sanchez kept the Pirates harmless. Hutch didn't say why, but he put Henry on the mound to finish out the last inning.

A great tattoo ensued. Singles by Smoky Burgess, Bill Virdon and Bill Mazeroski put over one run. A pinch homer by Hal Smith added three more.

Henry was yanked and Ted Wiant went in to try to hold the line. But Dick Groat singled and Bob Skinner banged a game-winning homer.

The Reds needed a good reliever badly when they acquired Henry from Chicago's Cubs last inter.

Hutchinson has been trying to keep the new bullpen specialist in trim because "if he isn't active he gets rusty."

Booster Club Ready for Skate Party

The Circleville Booster Club has completed plans for its skating party at Circle "D" Recreation Wednesday.

Activity will start at 7:30 p. m. and last until 10. Tickets may be obtained at the door.

John Dietrich, owner of Circle "D", has donated use of the skating rink. Proceeds from the event will be used by the Booster Club in its campaign to initiate 7th and 8th grade football here this fall.

The Booster committee heading the project is composed of Jerry Easter, Don Hannahs and Frank Gill. They said adults and students alike are invited for an evening of fun.

Dietrich said skates may be obtained at the rink for the usual rental fee. Music and floor supervision will be provided.

Tigers in Split At Hillsboro Field

The Tigers of Circleville split a doubleheader at Hillsboro Saturday, winning the first game, 12-5, and dropping the second, 5-3.

The twinning marked opening of SCOL play for the Tigers. Hillsboro previously posted League wins over Greenfield and Washington C. H.

Righthander Sam Weller won his second game in two starts in Saturday's opener. He was aided by 12 hits on the part of his mates.

Danny Leonhardt was charged with the loss in the second test. He allowed only six hits, but was handicapped with six Tiger errors.

TIGERS Jim Wellington, Harry Strawser and Jim Tootle led the hitting attack in the opening game. Wellington was three-for-five, and Strawser and Tootle two-for-three.

Strawser, Circleville's slugging catcher, lost credit for a homerun by failing to touch second base. His blast went deep into left center. He also pounded a triple in the second tilt.

Circleville got off to a good start with seven runs in the second inning. The locals scored two more in the fourth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh. Hillsboro picked up one in the first, three in the fifth and one in the seventh.

Weller fanned five and walked none. Johnson and Daniels handled mound duties for Hillsboro, whiffing 10 and walking five.

In the second game the score was deadlocked at 2-2 at the end of the scheduled five-inning test, requiring two extra frames. Hillsboro rallied for three in the seventh while the Tigers came back with one in their half of the final stanza.

Sophomore first sacker Dick Kline paced the Tigers at the plate, hitting safely all three times at bat. One of his blasts was a double.

LEONHARDT hurled tight ball, fanning seven and walking four. Kessler picked up the win on nine strikeouts and two walks.

Coach Dick Fisher's squad resumes action tomorrow with an SCO test at Washington C. H. The Blue Lions stand 4-2 for the season and 2-1 in league play.

Friday the Tigers entertain Greenfield in another SCO battle.

Darby Topples Walnut, 2-0

Darby all but cinched the Pickaway County Baseball League title Thursday with a 2-0 shutout over arch-rival Walnut on the Tiger diamond.

Tommy Walters went the distance in limiting Walnut to three hits, while striking out 17 and walking two. Tom Harber absorbed the defeat as he hurled 6 1/3 innings, allowing three hits, walking two and whiffing eight.

Lloyd Davidson came on in the seventh to finish up. The Trojans scored both their runs in the fourth stanza. Lynn Sheets started the action by sending a pop fly into left field which fell for a two-bagger.

Tommy Liff singled Sheets home and later scored himself on errors. The other Darby hit was garnered by Jerry Vance. Bill Hoover, Davidson and Ferguson had the three Tiger safeties.

It was Darby's fifth straight league victory while Walnut was losing its first league encounter to presently stand, 2-1. Walters posted his third consecutive win while Harber dropped his first in three outings.

Ashville Tops Triad; Leads DV League

Ashville took undisputed first place in the Darby Valley Baseball League Thursday with a convincing 11-3 victory at Triad.

Richard Wilcox allowed five hits, struck out six and walked three in registering the Broncos' third straight DV win. The losing hurler was Rutan, who fanned three and issued six free passes.

Triad took an early 1-0 lead. Ashville sailed to a 5-1 margin in the top half of the second stanza. It was a seesaw battle until the top of the seventh when Jim Brown uncorked a bases-loaded double to drive in three runs.

The only extra base hit was Jim Gregg's double. The Broncos smashed nine hits in all. Gregg and Tom Rathburn each had two. Lincoln went 2 for 3 for Triad.

Posting a 3-0 slate in DV play, the Broncos have tentatively scheduled a contest with Amanda tomorrow. The Pickaway County Tournament is slated to start today.

Sen. Frost Due In Tell-Tale Trot

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Two trotters who are expected to challenge Bye Bye Byrd in his bid for a second straight national harness racing title match strides in the $25,000 Free-for-All Trot at Roosevelt Raceway Saturday night.

They are Trader Horn, best of the country's aged trotters last year, and Senator Frost, who turned in several sensational victories at Santa Anita before heading east.

Bye Bye Byrd, a 5-year-old pacer owned by Rex C. Larkin of Chicago, showed that he has lost none of his speed when he stepped a mile in 2:02.2-5 over the twice-around oval in his 1960 debut at Roosevelt last Saturday.

The time was the fastest of the meeting as Clint Hodgins drove the 1959 horse of the year to a three-quarter length victory over Widower Creed. The latter had won three straight on the West Coast, including a 1:36.4-5 clocking on the mile track.

Trader Horn, an 8-year-old owned by Arthur and Jane Nardin of New York and Miami Beach, Fla., finds himself in much the same position as Bye Bye Byrd. He has not raced this year while Senator Frost twice has won in two minutes or faster. A 1:58.4-5 mile on April 9 was a Santa Anita record.

Senator Frost, who races for W. W. Galvin of Wilmington, Ohio, last fall trotted a mile on a mile oval in 1:57.3-5 for the fastest trot of the year. Trader Horn, however, was the leading money winning trotter ($144,419) and posted a 2:01.3-5 time on a half-mile track. He also is the top money winner among active campaigners with $347,376.

One of them could well represent the United States in the International Trot at Roosevelt this year. Trader Horn finished fourth behind the French champion, Jamin, in the International last year.

Fish, Game Meeting Set

A public hearing on proposed changes in Ohio hunting and fishing laws will be held Wednesday at Memorial Hall. The session starts at 8 p. m.

The proposed changes will concern hunting laws for 1960 and fishing laws for 1961. The meeting is open to all hunters and fishermen.

The meeting here will be followed by a district meeting in Chillicothe in the near future for further discussion of proposals. A farmer representative and a sportsman representative will be elected here Wednesday night to attend the district meeting.

Persons interested in wildlife gather here each year to get local opinions on state and game regulations. Following district meetings, a state session is held in Columbus. Regulations for the coming seasons then are based on the results of this final meeting.

Billy Loes Helps Giants To Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

San Francisco's major winter trade that sent outfielder Jackie Brandt to Baltimore for pitchers Billy O'Dell and Billy Loes has paid its first dividend of the infant National League season.

Loes, the unpredictable was 30 years old, scored the run that gave the Giants a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Third baseman Jimmy Davenport, whose late season injury was a big factor in the Giants' 1959 collapse, drove in the tie-breaking run with a single off relief pitcher Ben Johnson.

The victory enabled the Giants to remain in a first place deadlock with the Los Angeles Dodgers. The defending champions defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-5 for their third consecutive victory. The defeat was the fifth for the winless Cubs.

Milwaukee remained a half game behind the leaders, wallowing in the Philadelphia Phillies 8-4 for its third success in four starts.

Pittsburgh jumped into fourth place by sweeping a doubleheader from Cincinnati. The Pirates won the opener 5-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Bob Friend, then came from behind with a six-run rally in the bottom of the ninth to nip the Reds 6-5 in the nightcap.

Loes was the fourth Giant pitcher, following Mike McCormick, Stu Miller and Jack Sanford. He took over in the 12th, retired six straight batters, then pitched himself out of trouble by getting pinch hitter Sammy Taylor with two runners on base in the top of the 14th.

Larry Sherry, star of the 1959 world series, won his first game of the season but he needed home run help from Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Wally Moon. The right-hander also needed pitching help from Sandy Koufax, who stopped the Cards without a run in the last three innings. Stan Musial banged his first homer of the season for the Redbirds.

Eddie Mathews drove in three runs with a home run, triple and double to help right-hander Bob Buhl record his first victory of the season for the Braves. The homer was Mathews' 300th of his career. The 28-year-old slugger matched Jimmy Foxx as the youngest to hit that many homers.

Held to five harmless hits through eight runless innings of the second game, the Pirates exploded for six safeties in the bottom of the ninth to overcome a 5-0 deficit against Cincinnati.

When Pittsburgh came up for its last turn at bat, Red manager Fred Hutchinson replaced Raul Sanchez with southpaw Bill Henry, the fine relief pitcher Cincinnati acquired from the Cubs during the winter.

After retiring the first batter, Henry gave up singles to Smokey Burgess, Bill Virdon and Bill Mazeroski for one run. Hal Smith, a pinch hitter, then slammed a three-run homer. Ted Wileand got the second out but Dick Goat followed with a single and Bob Skinner climaxed the winning rally with a two-run homer.

Friend was masterful in picking up his first victory in the opener. Roberto Clemente's two-run homer off loser Joe Nuxhall in the first inning was all the veteran right-hander needed.

Views on Television - Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Television, while too often giving less than its best, sometimes provides precious moments of beauty, enchantment and emotion.

There seemed to be many of these moments Sunday. First, both NBC and CBS brought us stirring and dramatic Easter services in both Protestant and Catholic churches. Perhaps the most fortunate viewers were those with color sets, as NBC's color cameras took us to the Cincinnati Cathedral of St. Peter in Chains. It was a beautiful church, a lovely service, glowing in rich color. At moments during the Mass, the camera was so close to the altar that one could watch the graceful motions of the celebrant's hands and even savor the beauty of the chalice as the priest lifted it high.

There was Janet Flanner's handsome face, alight with memory, as, on CBS' "Paris in the Twenties," she told how she and other talented young Americans flocked there after World War I.

They were drawn by a sense of excitement and lived grandly on little money in the French city, "so full of writing and literature it seemed as if every stone had a literary style of its own."

There was the earnest face of the Rev. Martin Luther King on NBC's "Meet the Press" explaining gently, but somehow fiercely, his philosophy about the current rash of sit-in strikes.

And there was a particularly touching drama with a triumphant Easter scene on NBC's "Frontiers of Faith." This one answered the

Billy Loes Helps Giants To Victory

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
San Francisco's major winter trade that sent outfielder Jackie Brandt to Baltimore for pitchers Billy O'Dell and Billy Loes has paid its first dividend of the infant National League season.

Loes the unpredictable was Loes the magnificent Sunday. The 30-year-old relief ace not only hurled three hitless and runless innings but singled in the bottom of the 14th and scored the run that gave the Giants a 4-3 triumph over the Chicago Cubs.

Third baseman Jimmy Davenport, whose late season injury was a big factor in the Giants' 1959 collapse, drove in the tie-breaking run with a single off relief pitcher Ben Johnson.

The victory enabled the Giants to remain in a first place deadlock with the Los Angeles Dodgers. The defending champions defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 7-5 for their third consecutive victory. The defeat was the fifth for the winless Cubs.

Milwaukee remained a half game behind the leaders, wallowing in the Philadelphia Phillies 8-4 for its third success in four starts.

Pittsburgh jumped into fourth place by sweeping a doubleheader from Cincinnati. The Pirates won the opener 5-0 behind the four-hit pitching of Bob Friend, then came from behind with a six-run rally in the bottom of the ninth to nip the Reds 6-5 in the nightcap.

Loes was the fourth Giant pitcher, following Mike McCormick, Stu Miller and Jack Sanford. He took over in the 12th, retired six straight batters, then pitched himself out of trouble by getting pinch hitter Sammy Taylor with two runners on base in the top of the 14th.

Larry Sherry, star of the 1959 world series, won his first game of the season but he needed home run help from Gil Hodges, Duke Snider and Wally Moon. The right-hander also needed pitching help from Sandy Koufax, who stopped the Cards without a run in the last three innings. Stan Musial banged his first homer of the season for the Redbirds.

Eddie Mathews drove in three runs with a home run, triple and double to help right-hander Bob Buhl record his first victory of the season for the Braves. The homer was Mathews' 300th of his career. The 28-year-old slugger matched Jimmy Fox as the youngest to hit that many homers.

Held to five harmless hits through eight runless innings of the second game, the Pirates exploded for six safeties in the bottom of the ninth to overcome a 5-0 deficit against Cincinnati.

When Pittsburgh came up for its last turn at bat, Red manager Fred Hutchinson replaced Raul Sanchez with southpaw Bill Henry, the fine relief pitcher Cincinnati acquired from the Cubs during the winter.

After retiring the first batter, Henry gave up singles to Smokey Burgess, Bill Virdon and Bill Mazeroski for one run. Hal Smith, a pinch hitter, then slammed a three-run homer. Ted Wileand got the second out but Dick Goat followed with a single and Bob Skinner climaxed the winning rally with a two-run homer.

Friend was masterful in picking up his first victory in the opener. Roberto Clemente's two-run homer off loser Joe Nuxhall in the first inning was all the veteran right-hander needed.

NEW YORK (AP)—Television, while too often giving less than its best, sometimes provides precious moments of beauty, enchantment and emotion.

There seemed to be many of these moments Sunday. First, both NBC and CBS brought us stirring and dramatic Easter services in both Protestant and Catholic churches. Perhaps the most fortunate viewers were those with color sets, as NBC's color cameras took us to the Cincinnati Cathedral of St. Peter in Chains. It was a beautiful church, a lovely service, glowing in rich color. At moments during the Mass, the camera was so close to the altar that one could watch the graceful motions of the celebrants' hands and even savor the beauty of the chalice as the priest lifted it high.

There was Janet Flanner's handsome face, aligned with memory, as, on CBS' "Paris in the Twenties," she told how she and other talented young Americans flocked there after World War I.

They were drawn by a sense of excitement and lived grandly on little money in the French city, "so full of writing and literature it seemed as if every stone had a literary style of its own."

There was the earnest face of the Rev. Martin Luther King on NBC's "Meet the Press" explaining gently, but somehow fiercely, his philosophy about the current rash of sit-in strikes.

And there was a particularly touching drama with a triumphant Easter scene on NBC's "Frontiers of Faith." This one answered the old question about finding life in death in a play about the Hungarian freedom fighters. This fine series deserves a better time spot than 1:30 p.m. Sunday.

Schoendienst Not Amazed At Comeback

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Who's surprised about the amazing comeback of veteran Red Schoendienst of the Milwaukee Braves? Just about everyone in baseball — except the 37-year-old infielder himself.

"I don't know why everyone is surprised at the way I've come back," Red said Sunday night after the Braves returned to Milwaukee from Philadelphia.

"It certainly doesn't surprise me. I said all the time that I'd be back there as good as I ever was."

A year ago Red was flat on his back in St. Louis, recovering from lung surgery after being stricken with tuberculosis. He was out most of 1959, rejoining the team the final two weeks of the season and playing in only five games.

Today Red is leading the Braves regulars in batting with an average of .500 on 8 hits in 16 times at bat. He had 4 for 4 Saturday and 2 for 5 Sunday and has driven in three runs. He has started all four games played by Milwaukee this year.

The amazing redhead said earlier he expected to play 100 games for the Braves this year. Now he has upped that estimate to 125.

Red's fine play has led Manager Charlie Dressen to give up his search for another second baseman.

Tribe Trades Colavito for Tiger Star

DETROIT (AP)—The Detroit Tigers have parted with Harvey Kuenn, the American League's top hitter of 1959, to put more long ball punch in their lineup.

And the Cleveland Indians have given up the league's co-home run king, Rocky Colavito, hoping to convert Kuenn's steadier hitting into a pennant. The biggest star-for-star trade in years came on the eve of the American League's 1960 opening.

Many baseball fans were surprised Sunday when they learned President Bill Dewitt of the Tigers had persuaded General Manager Frank Lane of the Indians to give up the slugging Colavito in a straight player deal for Kuenn.

Colavito parked 42 homers last year and should do even better in Detroit's Briggs Stadium with its friendly left field wall. He had a .257 batting average compared to Kuenn's title-winning .353. But Kuenn hit only nine homers.

"The home run is overrated," said Lane in explaining why he gave up one of the game's finest young power hitters for one of its more consistent hitters.

"I rated to let Rocky go, but I think our chances of winning the pennant are greater with a steady hitter like Kuenn in the lineup."

3,000-Year-Old Cup Uncovered in Poland

BERLIN (AP)—An earthenware cup believed to be nearly 3,000 years old has been dug up near Rathsdorf Village in the Polish border area, the East German News Agency reports. The area was a burial place in the late Bronze and early Iron Ages.

World Ends Easter Worship; Pope Saddened by Racial Fuss

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

This was Easter Sunday, 1960. In Rome Pope John XXIII, speaking from the balcony of St. Peter's, sent his good wishes in seven languages to all parts of the world.

In Jerusalem, 50,000 pilgrims from many parts of Christendom jammed the Holy City to retrace the footsteps of Christ and celebrate the glory of his resurrection.

In the Soviet Union and in other Communist countries the reverent streamed to church despite official criticisms of their faith.

In the Far East, Christians of many nationalities prayed side by side in Japan, Korea and on Pacific islands.

Across America, millions of worshippers in cathedrals and churches, outdoor arenas and rustic chapels, raised their voices in prayer and psalm to celebrate the most joyous of all Christian holidays.

At a Presbyterian church near a golf club in Augusta, Ga., where he was vacationing, President Eisenhower worshiped with his family.

Nike Missile Value Again Is Questioned

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Army still says its Nike-Zeus antimissile missile could protect the United States against intercontinental attack. But the Defense Department is still doubtful.

The long dispute over the Nike-Zeus broke out again in closed door testimony before a House Appropriations subcommittee. The transcript of last month's hearings, heavily censored in spots, was made public today.

The Nike-Zeus system, still being developed, would combine radar to spot an enemy intercontinental missile and a killer weapon to erase it with a nuclear blast high in the air.

LT. Gen. Arthur G. Trudeau, the Army's chief of research, told the subcommittee he is confident the Zeus "can and will be successfully developed to meet and master the ballistic missile threat of the Soviet Union."

But Herbert F. York, research director for the Defense Department, which has the last word, told the same group "I think fall-out shelters are a more effective way of saving lives in a ballistic missile attack than Zeus."

They testified at different hearings. Told of York's expressed opinion, Trudeau said it would be "completely wrong" to consider shelters the only answer.

"You need a passive defense in this country and you need an active defense," Trudeau said. "Nike-Zeus is the only thing that has got a chance of doing it before 1970."

Not Too Short!

URBANA, Ill. (AP) — Don't cut your lawn grass too short if you want to remain attractive throughout the summer.

C. E. Ackerman, turf management specialist at the University of Illinois, says most home lawn grasses — blue-grasses, upright fescues and upright bent — do best when cut at a two-inch height every 7 to 10 days from June 10 to Sept. 10.

This height and frequency of cutting will help maintain a good relation between top growth and root growth, he said.

Not Too Short!

URBANA, Ill. (AP) — Don't cut your lawn grass too short if you want to remain attractive throughout the summer.

C. E. Ackerman, turf management specialist at the University of Illinois, says most home lawn grasses — blue-grasses, upright fescues and upright bents — do best when cut at a two-inch height every 7 to 10 days from June 10 to Sept. 10.

This height and frequency of cutting will help maintain a good relation between top growth and root growth, he said.

KISSIN' COMPLEX—Billy Gilbreath (above), apparently intent on giving lip service to religion, seized the daughter of an Assembly of God church pastor and tried to kiss her during services in San Antonio, Tex. He was seized and arrested.

FROM WAY DOWN HERE—Actually it's just emerging from being fired 100 feet below the surface at San Clemente Island, Calif. The 1,200-mile-range Polaris zoomed 1,800 feet up there in a 22-second test made by U.S. Navy scientists. This was the first time it had been fired from that deep. The Polaris is the missile for nuclear submarines. This one carried just a small amount of solid propellant for the limited flight.
